Satellite L50 New Series

STAY ENTERTAINED ANYWHERE

Whatever you're into, the super-slim Satellite L50-B series laptop has everything to keep you entertained. Measuring just 23mm thin, and weighing from just 2.2kg, you can take the L50-B anywhere. With a wide range of multimedia options – and a choice of Intel® and AMD processors – you'll have all you need to connect to your world. The laptop's Skullcandy™ tuned speakers and headphone jack, combined with DTS® Sound™ audio enhancement means your audio will be richer, deeper and more vibrant. The L50-B's frameless tile keyboard and large click pad look great and make input easy too. Selected models are available with a 10-point touch screen and there is also a choice of elegant colors to choose from. So, whether you're into movies, socializing online, web surfing or photography, you can stay entertained by richer sound and graphics on a 15.6" display – wherever you go.
